6. MANAGEMENT OF THE QUALITY OF STUDIES

- 6.1. The Curriculum Committees are in charge of study programmes' quality assurance and continuous improvement. The Committees act according to the Curriculum Committee Regulations. Administration of studies is monitoring the quality assurance process.
- 6.2. The quality of study programmes is assured and improved by:
 - 6.2.1. an external assessment of the quality of a study programme, which is carried out by the Centre for Quality Assessment in Higher Education or other recognised international quality assurance agency; the results of an external assessment of the quality of study programmes is announced publicly;
 - 6.2.2. an internal assessment of the quality of a study programme;
 - 6.2.3. gathering the data on study programmes, analysing them and announcing the results of the analysis;
 - 6.2.4. collecting feedback and acting upon it;
 - 6.2.5. ensuring the adequacy and suitability of material resources necessary for studies;
 - 6.2.6. developing lecturers' competences and qualifications;
 - 6.2.7. monitoring and analysing the course of studies;
 - 6.2.8. improving the management of study programmes;
 - 6.2.9. promoting the use of innovative methods of teaching and assessment of learning outcomes;
 - 6.2.10. renewing study programmes periodically;
 - 6.2.11. promoting best practices;
 - 6.2.12. applying other measures.
- 6.3. Feedback on the implementation of study programmes is collected regularly by carrying out:
 - 6.3.1. a comprehensive survey of students after every course (module). The survey covers evaluation of the following aspects of the quality of a study programme: general opinion about the course (module), clarity of assessment criterion, validity of teaching methods, tutor availability, and if the aims stated in the course (module) description have been reached. Students also provide information about the level of study services, sufficiency of resources and the work carried out by the administrative staff;
 - 6.3.2. a formative evaluation in the middle of a semester. Formative evaluation helps students to identify development/learning prospects, to cooperate with teaching staff, and to participate in the process of assessment decisions. During the formative evaluation, student representatives, in cooperation with Heads of the programmes and other administrative staff, discuss every course (module), its' consistency with the course (module) description, clarity of assessment criterion, procedure of assessments, and variety of teaching methods.
 - 6.3.3. surveys of lecturers. The survey covers the preparation of students for studies, their motivation, facilities, provision of literature, technical equipment and other resources necessary to achieve the learning outcomes of a course (module);
 - 6.3.4. surveys of employers about the alumni readiness for professional activities;
 - 6.3.5. alumni career monitoring and surveys assessing the competences gained during studies in a study programme which they graduated from;
 - 6.3.6. regular self-assessment of study programmes, which is prepared in a joint effort by Studies Department, Heads of Study Programmes, lecturers, students, graduates, employers and other social partners.
- 6.4. The general feedback results are discussed at the meetings of the Commission of Studies and the Curriculum Committees. Only summarised information of feedback analysis is announced publicly. The long-term results of feedback analysis are used by the Curriculum Committees in making improvements of study programmes, and by Lecturers' Attestation Commission to assess lecturers' work and to determine the needs for lecturer's competence development.

- 6.5. All information related to the implementation of study programmes, decisions made are announced on the ISM website.

7. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

- 7.1. ISM has the right to collect students' personal data in order to carry out tasks defined in ISM's internal rules on processing of personal data, and process the collected data in ways compatible with those tasks. ISM acts as data controller and / or data processor in processing students' personal data. In any case, ISM, when processing students' personal data, undertakes to ensure the compliance with and implementation of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (hereafter – General Data Protection Regulation or the Regulation), the Law on Legal Protection of Personal Data of the Republic of Lithuania, and other legislation regulating processing and protection of personal data.
- 7.2. Data subject (student) has the following rights:
- 7.2.1. to obtain full information about their data processed by ISM; where and how the personal data was collected, and on what basis the data is being processed;
 - 7.2.2. to contact ISM with a request to rectify their personal data, restrict its processing, erase the data, if the data is incorrect, incomplete or inaccurate, or if the data is no longer needed for the purpose for which it has been collected. In such case, data subject must submit a request, and then the ISM shall check the provided information and shall take the necessary actions;
 - 7.2.3. to contact ISM with a request to erase their personal data or to restrict its processing, with the exception of storage – in the case when, after accessing their personal data, the student finds that their personal data is processed unlawfully or unfairly;
 - 7.2.4. to object the processing of personal data, when the data is processed or are intended to be processed for the purpose of direct marketing or for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by ISM or by a third party, to which the personal data is provided;
 - 7.2.5. to withdraw their consent regarding processing of personal data for the purpose of direct marketing at any time;
 - 7.2.6. to exercise of the rights of data subjects as stipulated in the legislation;
 - 7.2.7. in case the data subject is concerned with the ISM actions (failure to act), which possibly mean failure to comply with the legislation on data protection, they can address ISM data protection officer via email dpo@ism.lt and receive assistance (free of charge).
 - 7.2.8. where resolution of the issue is not possible with ISM, data subject has the right to contact the State Data Protection Inspectorate (www.ada.lt), which is responsible for the supervision and control of enforcement of the legislation regulating the protection of personal data.
- 7.3. ISM processes and stores collected data for the periods set by ISM, with the exception when longer or shorter period of data storage is set in the legislation of the Republic of Lithuania.
- 7.4. ISM has the right to share certain personal data with other universities, public bodies or third parties in the course of cooperation related to the study process and when it is necessary to the interest of a student, or when the ISM has to comply with the legislative obligations.
- 7.5. When the personal data is no longer needed for the set purposes of data processing, the data shall be erased, except the cases when the legislation determines the transfer of data to the state archives or the data has to be stored for other purposes defined by the legislation.
- 7.6. More detailed information on personal data processing at ISM can be found at: <https://www.ism.lt/en/privacy-policy/>.

 - 6.1.5. For the performance of mandatory initial military service - for a period of one academic year throughout the entire study period.
- 6.2. A ~~bachelor;bachelor's~~ degree student, who is unable to continue their studies, and who submits a request at least two weeks prior to the start of the respective semester, has the right to take a leave of absence.
- 6.3. Issues related to the payment of tuition fee by the degree students, who have been granted a leave of absence by order of the Rector, shall be dealt with according to the Procedure for payment, reimbursement and recovery of tuition fees at ISM.
- 6.4. Upon return from their leave of absence, but not later than two weeks prior to the start of the relevant semester, a degree student shall submit a request for permission to resume studies. Failure to submit a request leads to the expulsion from the ISM by order of the Rector and termination of Study Agreement.
- 6.5. If changes occurred in the study programme during the student's leave of absence, decisions regarding credit transfer from the old programme and an individual study plan shall be made in compliance with the Procedure for recognition of study results and credit transfer and the Procedure for development of individual study plans.
- 6.6. Upon return from their leave of absence, a degree student shall pay tuition fee at the terms and conditions provided in the Study Agreement and in accordance to the Procedure for payment, reimbursement and recovery of tuition fees at ISM that is in force at the time.

- 6.7. During their leave of absence, degree students shall not take part in International student study exchange programmes.
- 6.8. In case of objective reasons to suspend studies, a degree student can submit a substantiated request for a leave of absence during the course of a semester. In such case the decision on granting the leave of absence and payment of tuition fee is made by the Commission of Studies.

7. INTERNATIONAL MOBILITY OF DEGREE STUDENTS

- 7.1. ISM provides degree students with an opportunity to participate in international student exchange programmes. Dissemination of information about exchange possibilities for studies and their selection criteria shall be carried out by the staff members of the International Studies Office (international@ism.it). Selection of candidates for international student exchange programmes for studies shall be carried out by the staff members of the International Studies Office. Dissemination of information about international internship and selection of candidates for it shall be performed by the staff members of the Career Centre (career@ism.it).
- 7.2. International student exchange programmes and international internships are defined and regulated by the Regulations on the international mobility activities of students and staff, which are published in e-learning system (elearning.ism.it).

8. ASSESSMENT OF STUDENTS

- 8.1. Interim assessments – assessments organised during the course of a semester. These assessments are listed in a course description, as well as the procedure of such assessments, which is defined by the tutor. Interim assessments are not retaken or additionally organised.
- 8.2. Exam – a form of final assessment of a course, the aim of which is to make an objective assessment of the level at which a student has reached the defined learning outcomes. An exam may be in written form or in written and oral form, and is held after the completion of the course at the time specified in the timetable of examinations. Exams during an early exam period are organised according to the Procedure for Organising an Early Examination Session.
- 8.3. A proportion of a retake examination grade in the final grade constitutes of a proportion of a grade for an exam and/or sum of proportions of interim assignments, unless stated otherwise in a course description.
- 8.4. All assessments (interim, exams, retakes) are held according to the procedure defined in the Examination taking procedure.
- 8.5. The level at which the course has been mastered is given a “pass/fail” or a final grade, which is calculated according to the cumulative grade formula, unless stated otherwise in a course description. Only positive (not less than 5) non-rounded grades of semester’s assessments and exams are calculated:

$$P = \sum_{i=1}^n (D_i \times S_i) + E \times S_e, \text{ where}$$

P - final grade;

n - number of interim assessments during a semester;

D_i – grade for the i^{th} assessment during a semester (non-rounded);

S_i – weight / proportion of the i^{th} assessment during a semester;

E – exam grade;

S_e – weight / proportion of exam grade.

- 8.6. Study results are published to the students on the student portal (my.ism.it) during the course of five working days from the day of an assessment unless specified otherwise.
- 8.7. Students acquire the right to a retake only if the final grade for a course is negative or “fail” or if they did not participate in examination, and if they submit a request to the Commission of Studies not later than 2 working days after the examination. If a student fails the subject during the free retake, they must repeat the entire course in the following academic year and pay according to the number of credits and the price per credit set by ISM, which is reviewed and approved for each academic period
- 8.8. Students who participated in the examination and received a positive final grade for a course, have no right to retake the whole course.
- 8.9. Students have the right to submit an appeal on the grounds and procedures described in the Description of the Procedure for Submission and Consideration of Applications and Appeals.
- 8.10. The Commission of Studies has a right to cancel an exam (interim assessment) in the case of violation of the process of studies. In such case another date for the repeated exam (interim assessment) shall be announced. Results of the repeated exam (interim assessment) shall be considered to be final. The reasons for the annulment of exam (interim assessment) shall be announced to ISM community by the administrative staff of studies.
- 8.11. In the case student is repeating a failed course (academic failure) they have to pay the tuition fee that covers the volume of credits allotted for the course. The repeated course is considered as additional ~~studies~~studies, and its credit fee is calculated based on the credit rate for additional services pertaining to studies approved by ISM for each academic period.
- 8.12. Students, who do not pass an elective course and want to choose another elective course instead of a failed one, shall submit a request to change an elective course prior to the subsequent semester.
- 8.13. Degree students, who return from international exchange programmes with failed courses (modules) shall consult their Programme Director prior to retaking failed courses (modules). For these course credits student pays according to the rate per study credit of additional studies.
- 8.14. After a semester is completed, ~~Bachelor~~bachelor's degree students who have failed at least three courses during the respective period of studies shall submit a request to develop an individual study plan. An individual study plan shall be prepared on student's request according to the Individual study plan development procedure until the student eliminates academic gaps in the chosen study programme. A request to develop an individual study plan should be submitted until 15 July after the Spring semester, and until January 26 after the Fall semester. An individual study plan shall be developed according to the Regulations of Drafting Individual Study Plans. A degree student who failed three and more courses during the respective period of studies and haven't submitted a request regarding the development of an individual study plan in line with the deadlines, shall be considered a failing student and shall be removed from the list of students by the Order of the Rector. In such case the Study Agreement shall be terminated.
- 8.15. In exceptional cases (hospitalization, accident, loss of family members), student is allowed to a retake on the agreed date. Student shall inform ISM about emergency case immediately; a decision on a retake is taken by the Commission of Studies.

9.2. A valid reason is an illness (with supporting documents from a doctor), a court summons, or mandatory military service (based on submitted official documents).

9.10. COMPLETION OF UNIVERSITY STUDIES

9.1-10.1. Study programme is completed by assessment of degree-student's knowledge, understanding, skills and attitudes during the process of thesis defence.

46.2. A student is allowed to defend their bachelor's thesis only if they have no academic debts. Defence of bachelor thesis is possible only after meeting of all requirements of a study programme and in absence of academic debts

10.2.

9.3-10.3. Degree students with academic debts have the right to prepare their thesis, but they are not allowed to defend it. Students, who have failed to fulfil study programme's requirements, have the right to prepare thesis, but may not defend it. A student is allowed to defend their thesis only after clearing their academic debts, but no earlier than the following semester, if ISM organizes the defence of theses for the respective study program at that time, or after one year. Defence of the thesis may take place not earlier than next semester, under the circumstances that the corresponding study programme's thesis defence process is organised by ISM during that semester, or one year later after complete fulfilment of all study programme's requirements. No additional fee is required, if the final thesis meets requirements set in the requirements for writing thesis.

46.4. A student is not allowed to defend their thesis if they did not prepare the thesis, did not upload it on time to the e-learning system, or if the thesis did not meet the thesis preparation guidelines. Student, who has failed to prepare final thesis, to submit their thesis to the Study Services Department on time or whose thesis does not comply with the requirements set in the requirements for writing thesis shall not be allowed to defend it.

9.5-10.5. Degree students, who have failed to submit their thesis or who terminated thesis writing process upon the decision of the Commission of Studies, did not attend thesis defence, or failed to defend their thesis must submit a request to the Study Services Department to write and defend thesis during the subsequent semester given that the corresponding study programme's thesis defence process is organised by ISM during that semester, or one year later. The request must be submitted up to the end of the current semester. If degree students fail to submit a request, their Study Agreement is terminated by order of the Rector. Degree students who want to repeat thesis writing and defence process shall pay tuition fee for the number of thesis credits. Tuition fee is set according to the rate per study credit of additional studies.

9.6-10.6. Thesis is defended in public meeting of the Thesis defence commission. Decisions passed by the Thesis defence commission are final and indisputable.

46.7. The bachelor's degree is awarded by the Thesis Defence Committee and approved by the Rector's order. Bachelor degree shall be awarded and the diploma, testifying the fact, shall be issued together with the diploma supplement. The degree is awarded and both documents are issued upon the proposal of the Thesis defence commission and the order of the Rector.

10.8. The bachelor's degree is confirmed by a diploma and a diploma supplement.

9.1. Diploma and its supplement are issued to a student only upon their full fulfilment of obligations to ISM.
